

If you allow unlimited cell phone use on airlines, you'll see 'air rage' surpassing anything like car rage. Please don't take away our last vantage of being able to keep our sanity in the tight, cramped, confines of an airline seat with loud talkers, crying babies, and seatback kicking kids already driving us to the edge.